

The Brighton Art Guild's physical home is located in the historic CoBACH Center, 202 Main Street, Brighton (located on the Mill Pond). We meet monthly for fellowship and a speaker program at the Brighton District Library, 100 Library Drive, Brighton. Program begins at 6:30pm on the first Wednesday of the month. The Guild sponsors a variety of public fine art competitions, and community art events, provides classes/workshops in a variety of mediums, offers professional development for artists and supports the arts throughout the greater Brighton area. The Guild also provides multiple ongoing "Art in Public Places" area exhibits featuring member artists and curates the Norma Gray Gallery (Brighton District Library).
